

GLOBAL MONEY MANAGEMENT

● Simon Thomas and Simon Murray, directors at Thomas Murray, the London-based securities services consultancy, have written 'Global Securities Services The Institutional Investors' Guide.'

The book covers issues faced by both trustees and investment managers regarding custody and administration of client securities invested globally. Divided into five sections, the guide details the global securities services markets, including how clients can assess current custody arrangements and potential risks. Also covered are procedures for selecting providers. The reference section includes supplier profiles, legal aspects of the securities services business and a glossary of terms. The book costs £395. Contact Simon Thomas on 0171-917-2859.

