

GLOBAL MONEY MANAGEMENT

MORGAN STANLEY'S WHITEHILL TO JOIN THOMAS MURRAY.

Ross Whitehill, v.p. at the London-office of Morgan Stanley & Co. International and head of sales for Europe for MS Services Products which includes custody, is leaving to join London-based securities services consultancy Thomas Murray as a partner and marketer.

In this newly created role, Whitehill will prospect for new business in Continental Europe, focusing on the Netherlands, France and Scandinavia, noted Murray. Whitehill said that he is delighted to be joining Thomas Murray.

Whitehill will target banks, insurance companies and pension funds, develop a conference and seminar programme as well as an information service for clients. He was hired for his extensive knowledge of European custody markets.

